

2012 OWWA/WEAO Joint Seminar

October 4, 2012

CLIMATE CHANGE: IMPACT ON WATER RESOURCES

Municipal decision makers are being challenged with impacts from variable weather and changing climate. Environmental professionals are called upon to support adaptive management by assisting with climate change assessments and adaptation planning in order to safeguard people and property and to mainstream climate change into municipal policies and operations. The breadth of climate impacts on water resources warrants knowledge and application of the latest research and information to support this planning.

A one-day seminar on Climate Change, with a Keynote Address by Gord Miller, the Environmental Commissioner of Ontario, presentations by notable environmental professionals, and a moderated expert panel discussion.
